This Our Life

At Cradock

THE 1960 ADMIRAL

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS OF
CRADOCK HIGH SCHOOL
Portsmouth, Virginia

F oreword

Cradock, a name which will ring forever in our hearts! As we prepare to leave these halls, our minds are filled with the memories of our years spent here; our initiation as freshmen; the football games; the plays; the club activities; all are a part of the treasured past.

As we reflect upon these memories, we are grateful for the guidance our teachers have given us in preparation for the long road ahead.

And now, the Senior Class of 1960 proudly presents, "This our Life at Cradock!"

We love Seniors, cha-cha-cha!

The cheerleaders give a homecoming yell.

Prospective chemists try an experiment.

Practice makes perfect, girls.

Carolyn, Bobby, and Wayne are among the first to pay their fees.

We Pay Tribute

With deep admiration, we, the Senior Class of 1960, dedicate our "Admiral" to Mr. Wayne A. Hogan. All know his pleasant smile and willingness to help everyone. As assistant principal for seventeen years he has rendered a great service to the school and community. He will always find time to give a kind word and some helpful advice. Most cherished memories will remain in the minds of the senior class, as they will in all who know this kindest friend.

Stevie and Richard congratulate Mr. Hogan.

Besides his many other duties, Mr. Hogan teaches American History.

ADMINISTRATION

School Board

MR. E. W. CHITTUM
Superintendent of Schools

The many problems that arise during the school year are solved by the school board. The members are prominent men well acquainted with the problems of school students. The board has the authority over important rules and regulations regarding the schools.

The members of the board are as follows: Charles E. Russell from Western Branch; H. C. Paxson, Jr., from Pleasant Grove; S. H. Everton from Deep Creek; E. W. Chittum, the Superintendent; S. N. Sowyer, The Clerk; B. M. Williams from Washington; M. C. Alford, the Supervisor of Education; and A. E. Roach, from Butts Road.

You hold in your hands that which will become one of your most cherished possessions—your annual, the ADMIRAL. You will receive many happy moments as you leaf through its pages within the next few days; however, as years go by your yearbook will become more priceless to you. Herein is depicted mementoes of your class and the many activities which have occurred during the school year; you will have portrayed before you the incidents which contribute to a good school; you will find pictures of those who have furnished leadership for your school and state; the highlights of your class organizations, the athletic program, its clubs, dramatic productions, parties and other items too numerous to mention. Through this medium you will have recalled some of your happiest and most successful hours.

To you, the staff and the sponsor of the ADMIRAL for the year 1959, I should like to express the school's appreciation for recording in such a very fine way the scenes of the school year, 1959-60.

The Class of 1960 recognizes very proudly its twenty-two Honor Graduates. These students have worked their hardest for three and one-half years to achieve this honor.

Honored individually are the top ten of our class, led by James Sherrard, valedictorian, and Beverly Sawyer, salutatorian.

To be included on the list of Honor Graduates is indeed an outstanding achievement. Shown in the group picture are our twenty-two honor graduates, those who made a 3 or above average. We wish these Seniors much success in all they attempt in future years.

Class Song

As we tread these "portals of learning"
To launch out and greet life's beam,
May our efforts be rewarded;
May we think, and act, and dream.

May that which we've learned while in
Cradock,
N'ere leave us as on we go;
May our goals be high and worthy;
May our paths with goodness glow.

Let no faithless purpose enter
Our hearts as we greet the dawn.
Grant us wisdom, hope and courage,
Our prayer—while traveling on.

Class Poem

Who Are We?

"Who are we?" said the crew to their captain
When reaching their voyage's end.

"We have fought the battle and braved the sea,

But has all this made us men?"

Yes, we have defeated the idols of ignorance
On our voyage from day to day;
But shall we recall the hardships
As we sailed along the way?

"Who are you?" I ask as a challenge
As you venture forth in this land;
"Will you forever be just a seaman
Or will you be a captain of man?"

Betty Jo Brown, Class Poet

Our Class History

Dolores Cassidy, Historian

As we, the Class of 1960, look back with fondest memories on the four years that we have spent in Cradock, our hearts contain love and pride for the school that has been the center of our life. For Cradock has been the center of all the joys we've known since that first day in September four years ago when we, as frightened freshmen, FINALLY entered high school. We remember how lost we were especially during Initiation week after which we were thoroughly convinced that we were "rats" of the very lowest species. We knew that we were "low-man on the totem-pole."

However, it was not long before we had our feet under us and we organized our class. We elected Paul Rollins, President; Ken Dice, Vice-President; Kay Prince, Secretary; and Eddie Seager, Treasurer. Our sponsors were Mrs. Rhea Carter and "our" Mrs. Brooks. Our student council representatives were Linda Hahn, Karen Belding, Sandra Smith, and Beverly Sawyer.

We enthusiastically plunged into all activities and eager to have talent recognized, worked furiously on the Freshman-Sophomore Prom, "Red Sails in the Sunset." It was, of course, a huge success.

As sophomores, our awe-struck look was passed on to the class beneath us, and we set out to make our class the "best yet." Giving us able assistance were our sponsors, Miss Emmie Marlowe and Mrs. Nancy Witte, and our officers, Paul Rollins, President; Ken Dice, Vice-President; Kay Prince, Secretary, and Eddie Seager, Treasurer. And, of course, our prom, "Stardust," was simply out of this world.

As Juniors our class was really tops. We were upperclassmen now and we had begun to realize just how trivial those lower classmen really were! Leading our class were Ken Dice, Vice-President; Kay Prince, Secretary; and Larry West, Treasurer. Helping to make our prom, "Sayonara," really wonderful (we even made the Seniors happy) were our able sponsors, Miss Janice Cannon and Mr. A. B. Nimeyer.

Cannon and Mr. A. B. Nimeyer.

We applauded Janice DeJarnette as Maid of Honor in the Miss Cradock Beauty Contest and Kay Prince, best actress in "Mooney's Kids Don't Cry" and "Laura." We were very proud of Linda Hahn, Vice-President of the S. C. A. With orders in for our class rings, we dreamed of the year to come when we would be SENIORS.

And, finally, we were Seniors! With our return to school in September, 1959, we set out to prove that we were THE class. Of course, we wanted to make certain that those wretched freshmen were the first to know!

With our strong desire to serve our school to the utmost, we settled down to choose our leaders: Larry West, President; Tommy Carter, Vice-President; Kay Prince, Recording Secretary; and Dolores Cassidy, Corresponding Secretary. Once again our beloved Miss Byrd was Senior Class sponsor, and to Mr. Affeldt fell the impossible task of keeping track of the class "wealth." Our S. C. A. representatives were Glen Gettier, Dee Keeney, Linda Hahn, and Beverly Sawyer. We were very proud of the leaders of our school, our S. C. A. officers: Ken Dice, President; Kay Prince, Secretary; and Eddie Seager, Treasurer.

The new annual staff, led by Mary Martin, set about to prepare an annual that would outdo any that Cradock had ever published. We plunged into all school programs eager to make our reign outstanding.

Senior year was really tops. And our "Year of Presidents" proved so. We were really boastful about Beverly Sawyer, President of the state S. C. A.; Nancy Liddle, President of the Diversified Occupations Clubs of Virginia; Kenneth Potts, President of the Virginia chapter of the Distributive Education Clubs of America; Nancy Bailey, district President of Future Business Leaders of America, and Pat Kay, district President of D. O.

We dedicated the annual, elected our superlatives, ordered our cards and announcements, and were fitted for caps and gowns. Slowly the events were slipping by—Initiation Week, the Back-to-School Dance, Homecoming, the Thanksgiving game (when we beat Wilson!), the Faculty play, Christmas, basketball season, announcement of Jimmy Sherrard and Beverly Sawyer as Valedictorian and Salutatorian, baseball and track, Senior Class play, "I Remember Mama," the Miss Cradock contest, the Junior-Senior prom, Senior banquet, S. C. A. elections, those final exams, Baccalaureate, and finally, Graduation.

The final days of our senior year were the gayest and most wonderful of our never-to-be-forgotten high school career. It was the end of our joyous, carefree days at Cradock. We were approaching a new era of our life. With us we would take the knowledge, the guidance, and the very dearest memories—those of Cradock High!

Dolores Cassidy

The Junior Class

Junior Class President
John Casteen

We, of the Junior Class of 1960 have had a good year. And now we look forward to next year, to being seniors. But I am sure we will not forget nor regret this past year, ordering our class rings and saving to pay our class dues.

The Junior-Senior was the highlight of the year, with its "Tropical Paradise" setting. And as the year grew to a close the class all thanked our sponsors Mr. Wade and Mrs. Heath for all the help they gave us during the year. Now with only memories of our wonderful junior year we await with anxiety our senior year.

The Freshman Class

Freshman Class President
Tommy Gillette

Under the successful leadership of Tommy Gillette, class president, the Freshmen have experienced a very eventful year. Our sponsors, Miss Jo Ann Scarborough and Mr. John Wulzer, were very helpful in every way.

The Freshman class was nobly represented in the Homecoming festivities by Jackie Bishop and Tommy Gillette.

Our biggest and most exciting project this year was the Freshman-Sophomore Prom. With the collection of $1.00 dues we were able to carry out very successfully the theme, "South Pacific."

We, the Freshmen, can truthfully say that this year will be one to remember. We shall look forward, with much anticipation, to our last few years at Cradock.

Cradock 7

Newport News 20

September 11

After a hard fought contest Cradock lost their opening game for the first time in many years. The Admirals held the Typhoons in check until the end of the first half when the score was 13-7 favor of Newport News, but the second half told the tale. Cradock's lone TD was made by sophomore fullback Eddie House. Others who gave sparkling performances were Jimmy Robertson, Lorry Weldon and co-opts Poul Rollins and Lennie Umberger.

Cradock 13

Great Bridge 0

September 18

The fighting Admirals once more subdued the Great Bridge Wildcats 13-0 thanks to a mighty team effort. Both touchdowns were made by Eddie House who carried the ball on more than half the Admiral plays. Other outstanding players were Richard Huneycutt, Jimmy Robertson, and Gordon Phillips.

Suffolk 13

October 2

The Cradock Admirals downed the Suffolk Red Raiders 32-13 in a spectacular game. At the end of the first half the score was 7-6, Cradock. Fullback Eddie House scored twice on runs of 21 and 17 yards, and Richard Huneycutt reeled off an 81-yard scamper for another TD. The other two touchdowns were made by Earl Freeland and Gordon Phillips.

Cradock 7

Granby 7

October 9

Surprisingly the favored Admirals were held to a 7-7 tie by the Granby Comets. A Granby punt, blocked by Richard Huneycutt, set up Cradock's only TD, which was a pass from Wayne Waff to Charles Huneycutt. This made the score 7-0 at the end of the first half. Others turning in good performances were Lennie Umberger, Eddie House, and Billy Brett.

Cradock 0

Oscar Smith 19

October 16

The Admirals lost their second game at the hands of Oscar Smith 19-0. Smith, held in check for the first half, broke a scoreless deadlock in the early minutes of the third period. Cradock, though defeated played an exciting game.

Cradock 18

Maury 6

October 23

An alumni crowd of 4,500 watched the mighty maroon and gold defeat the Commodores 18-6, on the sparkling running of sophomore fullback Eddie House. Charles Huneycutt caught a pass for the final TD. Lennie Umberger was the defensive stand-out. Other outstanding players were Gordon Phillips, Billy Brett and Larry Weldon.

Cradock 27

Princess Anne 6

October 30

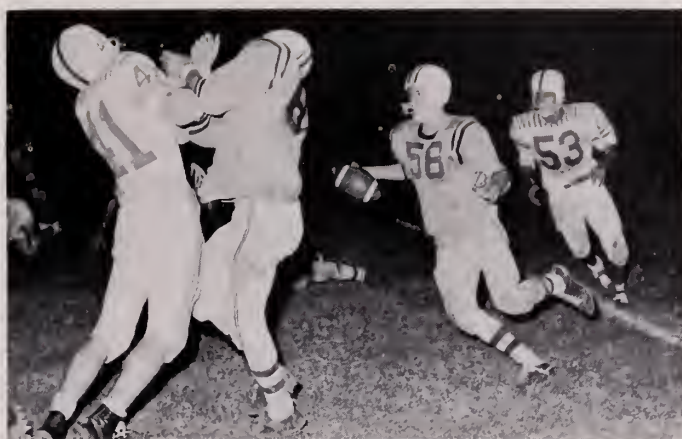

Cradock flattened Princess Anne, 27-6 Friday night. This decisive Eastern District verdict was the first registered by Coach Weldon over his counterpart, Pete Sachon. "Little Larry" Weldon, a chip off the old block, made the difference. He passed for two TD's and ran for one. Other outstanding players were Charles and Richard Huneycutt, Wayne Waff, and Eddie House.

Cradock 7

Norview 27

November 6

Trailing for the first time this season, unbeaten Norview exploded for two touchdowns in the second and third quarters to whip the tricky and dangerous Cradock eleven, 27-7. Larry Weldon's passing and House's running brought about Cradock's only TD. Wayne Waff played an exceptionally good game.

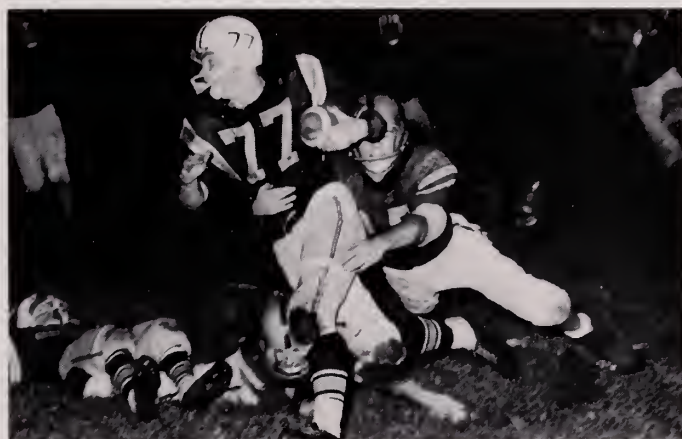

Cradock 13

Churchland 9

November 13

The Eddie House-Larry Weldon duo was the main factor in Cradock's victory over the Churchland Truckers. House carried the ball 21 times and Weldon threw 11 passes. The Huneycutt twins were the targets for many of Weldon's passes. The touchdowns were scored by Richard Huneycutt and Eddie House. Fine performances were also turned in by Wayne Waff, Lennie Umberger, and Billy Brett.

Cradock 44

Wilson 3

November 26

Enjoying their best Thanksgiving Day football feast on record, the Admirals overwhelmed Wilson, 44-3, in the first meeting of the rivals since 1953. The ease in which the Admirals ran up the score surprised a crowd of 6,000. Larry Weldon pitched to end Charles Huneycutt for three TD's. Other touchdowns were made by Jackie Morris, Earl Freeland, Lennie Umberger, and Eddie House. The whole team played a magnificent game. For his spectacular performance Charles Huneycutt received the "Most Valuable Player" trophy.

Varsity Basketball

Cooch Mr. Moc Eure

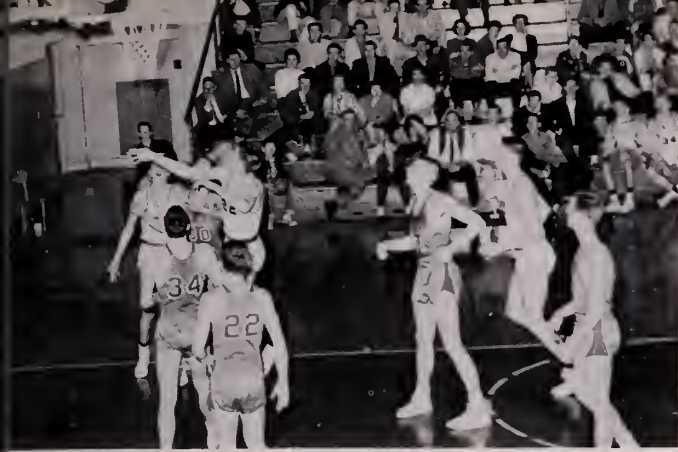

The Cradock cagers have had a hot and cold season so far this year. The club is made up of four seniors including Ed Pieroni, captain, Richard Huneycutt, Lennie Umberger and Jimmy Darden. Representing the juniors are Wayne Waff, J. R. Wilburn, Larry Weldon, Bobby Collier, and Charlie Lewis, with Jackie Morris the only sophomore.

The offensive-minded Admirals were led in points and rebounds by Wayne "Lama" Waff. Ed Pieroni and Lennie Umberger were other large factors in our victories.

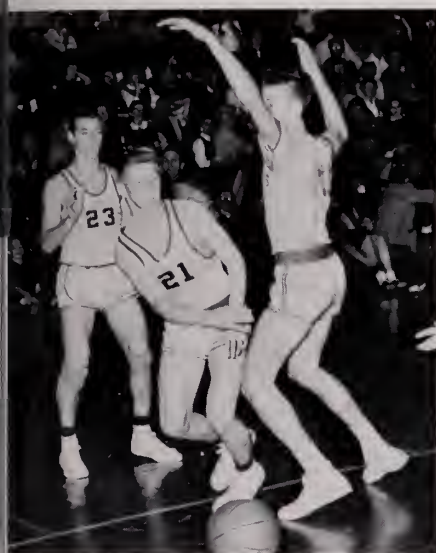

The coach, Mr. Mac Eure, had only three lettermen returning from last year.

Next year we are looking forward to an even more successful season since there will be several more lettermen returning.

A tense moment in the game.

Ed erupts for a shot.

J. R. pulls a fakey one.

Diversified Occupations

The Diversified Occupations Club is a state organization made up of D. O. students in various schools in the state. Our local chapter consists of 33 students working in many different occupations through the cooperation of local business and industry.

The aims of the D. O. Club are to develop within the students leadership, fellowship, craftsmanship, character, and citizenship.

Among the local activities, we held club meetings, participated in the Thanksgiving food drive, entered a float in Homecoming, and participated in the Annual Employer-Employee banquet with other D. O. Clubs in the area.

This year for the first time, a Cradock D. O. student, Nancy Liddle, held the office of President of the State D. O. Club.

The Thespian Society

The Thespian Society is a more advanced group in dramatics than the Dramatics Club, though each of them has the same set goal which is the advancement and promotion of dramatics. In order to become a member of Troupe 1491, a student must have earned at least ten points in dramatics at some time previous to his induction. He may do this by his participation in plays, work back stage, etc.

It is considered quite an honor to become a member of such a highly, nationally recognized organization.

The Cradock High

With the coming of this year, the band had much to look forward to. The general organization of the group was at its peak and the playing ability of each player had increased to meet the challenge of Grade Six music.

As usual the band performed at half-time for football games with bigger and better shows. For two special shows, the band combined with the band of the opposing school to present the half-time performance . . . They proved to be successful and will be continued next year.

Again this year, a small "Pep" band played for basketball games. The band's presence aroused spirit and provided entertainment at half-time.

The band also had its two annual concerts; the Christmas Concert and Spring Concert which were each followed by dances. Another activity that has become an annual affair is the band's banquet at which letters and pins are awarded to deserving members. In response to an invitation by the Stetson University Band at Deland, Florida, the band made a concert tour of Florida during the Spring vacation.

Of course, the main event of the year was the Eastern District Band Festival at which the band played Grade Six music, the most difficult for high school bands. This year, the festival was held at Cradock and the program was considered a success.

THE SHIPMATE crew was all new this year from Mrs. Rita Balch, 1st semester sponsor and Mr. R. D. Hunter, sponsor of the second semester, and editor, Bob Stampley, down to the cub reporters with the exception of Mary Ann Jereme, last year's editor, who returned this year as consultant. Although several students had previous newspaper experience, the new staff immediately realized that it had a lot to learn about the intricacies of off-set layouts, electric typewriting and hand-set headlines.

The hardworking journalism students who sacrificed time and efforts for THE SHIPMATE were Bob Stampley—editor-in-chief, News Editor—Nyoka White, Reporter—Linda Stallings, Feature Editor—Gypsy Martin, Art Editor—Helen Mitchell, Assistant—Ken Burke, Headline Editors—Edith Larrabee and Sandy Williams, Typists—Patsy Lakes, Peggy Stewart and Loretta Fox, Photography—Carol Galford, Circulation Managers—Bonita Wood and Priscilla Gilbert, Sports Editor—Leroy Curtis and Assistant—Billy Brett, Exchange Editors—Hilda Boone and Janie Norris, and Consultant—Mary Ann Jereme.

The introduction of the columns "Through the Sport-holes," "Fram the Admiral's Chair," "Off the Cuff," "Admiral Sports Summary," and crossword puzzles added a new look to THE SHIPMATE this year.

We have strived to produce a compact, interesting publication of high quality, and at the same time have tremendously enjoyed presenting THE SHIPMATE to the school and community of Cradock.

Back-To-School Dance

Eddie (Arthur Murray) Ross teaches Linda a new step.

This year Cradock High's annual "Back-To-School Dance" was a smashing success. The dance was held in the gym after the first pep-rolly. Everyone came to cheer the team on to victory and to dance to the latest hits of the day, such as, "Sea of Love," "Mr. Blue," and "Three Little Pigs." Along with the new songs a number of old favorites were played, among them "The Great Pretender" and "Short Fat Fonny." The highlight of the evening was the initiation of the new Freshmen. The dance was enjoyed by all . . . even the battle-scorred Freshmen.

Oh Mighty Seniors, we are "Rats"!

Homecoming.....

When the word Homecoming is mentioned at Cradock High School everyone begins to get excited. The very word brings thoughts of floats, football, and old friends.

This year's Homecoming was no exception. Everyone began to get his work done. Each club worked to make its float the prettiest, the band started practicing new numbers, the royal court was elected, and, of course, the football team practiced extra hard for their clash with Maury High School.

When the big day arrived everyone was happy to see how successfully he had done his job. Many new faces were seen in the hall as alumni from the classes of 1946 and 1947 began to arrive.

The biggest event of the day was the crowning of the 1959 Homecoming King and Queen — Miss Janice DeJarnette and Mr. Jimmie Dorn.

The festivities began with the annual parade through Cradock. Following the parade was a banquet honoring the returning alumni. After the football game and the crowning of the Royal Couple a dance was held in the school's cafeteria.

Never will we forget the happy hours spent on preparations for this exciting day, the hours we spent making flowers, the calloused hands we got from cutting chicken wire, or the thrill of the game and the half-time show. All in all it was a day full of happy memories that will forever be with us.
